JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

Twelve (12) Months as to each of Counts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13, said terms to commence and run concurrently one with the other.

As to Counts 14, 15 and 16, the defendant is committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a period of Twenty Four (24) Months, said terms to commence and run concurrently, one with the other, and commence and run consecutively to the sentence imposed on Counts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of Three (3) Years as to Counts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13 and One (1) Year as to Counts 14, 15 and 16, said terms to commence and run concurrently, one with the other, and upon the following terms and conditions 1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Orders 05-02 and 01-05; 2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer; 3. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath, and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs and alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision; 4. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer; 5. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer; 6. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's substance abuse and mental health to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer; 7. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this Judgment's orders pertaining to such payment; 8. The defendant shall not be employed in any position that requires licensing and/or certification by any local, state or federal agency without prior approval of the Probation Officer; 9. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. In addition, the defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgements and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation; and 10. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $1,600 which is due immediately or may be paid during the term of supervised release.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the amount of $481,754.00 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3663A.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid to the Internal Revenue Service.

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least ten percent of the defendant's gross monthly income or $2,000, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C.

Section 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3612(g).

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report, and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information (excluding the Presentence Report), to State or local social service agencies (such as the State of California, Department of Social Services), for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation.

The defendant was advised of his right to appeal, and if the defendant so wishes, defense counsel shall file a Notice of Appeal on behalf of the defendant.

It is further ordered that the defendant shall keep the 9th Circuit advised of his current address.

The Court recommends that the defendant be permitted to participate in the Bureau of Prisons 500 hour drug rehabilitation program if the defendant qualifies and that the defendant be designated to an institution in the Southern California area.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
